We are a Hong Kong-based, Asia-focused environmental NGO on a mission to accelerate the transition to a circular fashion industry by educating and empowering designers and consumers in order to reduce clothing's negative environmental impacts.

VOLUNTEER WITH THE REDRESS EDUCATION TEAM

The Redress Education team led by the Strategic Education Director drives the education strategy with a strong advisory and guidance role to the wider Redress team. It works closely with the Programme Directors and the Education Leads to ensure that educational content is consistent and aligned across their various projects and outputs (consumers, schools, corporates, fashion designers and educators).

What can you expect to gain from volunteering with the Redress Education Team?

- Take part in impactful work to change the fashion industry practices by empowering and educating consumers and emerging designers on circular fashion
- Expand your knowledge on circular fashion
- Keep in touch with the latest of sustainability in the fashion industry and fashion education
- Work in a fast paced environment, with driven, motivated and collaborative teams

YOU WILL HELP WITH

- Support the Strategic Education Director in improving the data management of various assets such as: statistics, educational content, quotes etc
- Review, clean-up and update the Redress educational data including industry report
- Identify strengths and gaps in educational content and statistics based on Redress education strategy
- Research on specific topics related to circular fashion
- Support the Redress Design Award Education Lead by updating existing database such as our material directory, university contacts, and mentors
- Market research for other relevant competitions, circular fashion content and environmental legislation

YOUR PROFILE

- Proactive and resourceful
- Detail-oriented
- Ambitious, willing to learn, optimistic and full of energy
- A passion for environmental sustainability and fashion
