DID YOU KNOW

The environmental cost of a cotton t-shirt?

IT TAKES AN AVERAGE OF

2,700 LITRES OF WATER

2M² OF CROPLAND

11.5 KG OF CO2E

...TO PRODUCE A SINGLE COTTON T-SHIRT.

Our clothes have a huge negative impact on the environment.

Keeping clothes in use for longer is CRITICAL to prevent the depletion of natural resources and environmental pollution.

GET REDRESSED MONTH BRINGS HONGKONGERS TOGETHER TO TAKE PRACTICAL ACTION.

GET REDRESSED MONTH 2027

REDRESS

Since 2018, Get Redressed Month is Hong Kong's largest consumer awareness campaign about circular fashion. Annually, it gathers 100+ companies, clubs, schools, and citizens to raise awareness, take action, and shift attitudes around the environmental impacts of our fashion choices.

Turn sustainability goals into visible impact through hands-on activities that bring your organisation together.

CLOTHING DRIVE

Offer a convenient drop-off point where your colleagues or the public can easily give unwanted clothing a new life.

SORT-A-THON

Hands-on support for redistributing collected items, most of which go to local communities.

EDUCATIONAL TALK

Learn about the impact of our clothing footprint and how AI influences our fashion habits.

DENIM CHALLENGE

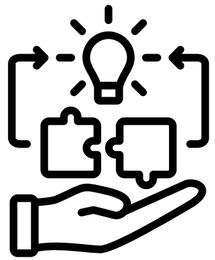

Fun informative game to play in your office.

UPCYCLING WORKSHOPS

Craft unique items from discarded fabric scraps.

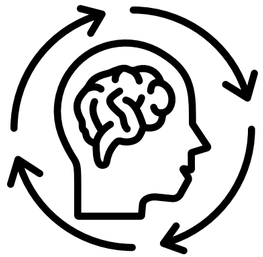

WHY ARE COMPANIES PARTICIPATING?

REDRESS

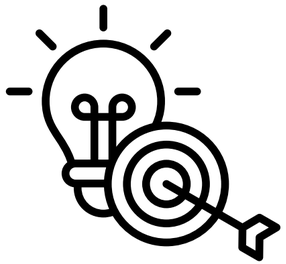

Tackle Hong Kong's Textile Waste

A staggering 400 tonnes of textiles are landfilled every day in Hong Kong. About 95% of these textiles could be reused or recycled.

Change Local Clothing Habits

Almost 1/3 of clothing in Hong Kong wardrobes is never or rarely worn. While 90% of us are willing to recycle, only around 11% of textiles are actually recycled.

Strengthen Purpose-Driven Company Culture

Over 80% of employees say stronger ESG practices make them more likely to stay. Sustainability action is now a real driver of retention and pride.

By signing up, your organisation becomes part of something bigger — a collective force for positive change.

REDRESS

CLOTHING DRIVE

A city-wide initiative

Redress will send 2 of our signature, eye-catching clothing collection boxes to your registered location(s), making it easy for your colleagues, customers or the public to keep clothing in circulation.

With 160 collection points across Hong Kong in 2026, giving clothes a new life has never been easier!

Host a clothing drive by placing collection boxes in your office or venue* during May 2027.

Full logistics support included: delivery by late April 2027, pickup by early June 2027.

Support circularity with a simple, high-visibility activity.

Engaging activity for the office or the shop.

For every 2 boxes you host, Redress will provide 2 free boxes to a school!

If you are a retailer or have a space that is publicly accessible, your location(s) will be featured on our map of public collection points

REDRESS

SORT-A-THON

Updated format for 2027!

Every item collected through the Clothing Drive will be carefully sorted at Sort-a-Thon before being redistributed to be reused by local charities or resold or downcycled by Redress - saving garments from landfill, one piece at a time.

We sorted 14.9 tonnes of clothing in 2026! See Sort-a-thon in action here!

Witness firsthand the impact of our clothing footprint by sorting through the Clothing Mountain.

Meet Redress' charity partners through a mini exhibition showcasing their work and the difference they make.

Activity is 2.5 hours long with up to 12 participants per team*.

Join 400+ company volunteers at this three-day event.

Games, music, and snacks to make this event both meaningful and fun!

Due to popular demand, a dedicated parents–children slot may be arranged. If your organisation is interested in forming a team of up to 6 parents and 6 children, please leave a comment upon sign-up.

REDRESS

EDUCATIONAL TALK

New 2027 topics

We've updated the educational talk content with fresh, tech-forward topics: from the hidden footprint of raw materials to how algorithms shape what we buy and how to take back control.

Arrange for a talk to explore the power of making more conscious choices.

Dynamic conversation in Cantonese or English.

Open to an unlimited audience size.

1 hour per session at your office, online or in person.

What to expect:

- The material matrix: what your clothes are made of
- From greenwashing to proof: fashion's transparency issues
- Who's curating your cart? The impact of algorithms and AI
- Your wardrobe, revalued: cost, wear, and resale
- Easy ways to become a sustainable fashion consumer

If you're looking for a more tailored activity to complement the educational session that isn't on our activity list, please leave a comment upon sign-up.

REDRESS

THE DENIM CHALLENGE

An informative game

Explore the complex realities of sustainability and learn about the environmental impact of the fashion industry through the lens of denim production.

Join us for this fun team activity inspiring us to rethink how to make better choices for our wardrobes!

In Cantonese or English

For 12 - 30 participants

1-hour per session at your office. In-person only.

What to expect:

In this game, each team will play the role of a fashion industry stakeholder and make decisions at every stage of the production of a pair of jeans. By stepping into these roles and facing real-life implications, participants will understand the delicate balance between social, economic and environmental sustainability.

REDRESS

UPCYCLING WORKSHOP

Interactive workshop at your office

Participants will craft unique items from discarded fabric scraps, learning practical skills to extend the life of materials that would otherwise go to waste. Most workshops can be adapted for children.

Why not turn waste into something unique while learning practical skills?

In Cantonese or English

Up to 12 participants

1 - 1.5 hours per session at your office, in-person only

Interactive workshop to craft with your team

Learn practical skills

Facilitated by a Redress Design Award Alumni designer

What to expect:

Led by a Redress Design Award alumni designer, this upcycling workshop combines team building with hands-on creativity and take home a selfmade souvenir.

REDRESS

WHO IS REDRESS?

We believe in the positive power of Fashion.

We are a Hong Kong-based, Asia-focused environmental NGO on a mission to accelerate the transition to a circular fashion industry by educating and empowering designers and consumers, in order to reduce clothing's negative environmental impacts.

We work with consumers, designers, brands, manufacturers, research institutions, schools, nonprofits, government, and corporations to explore and promote better ways to design, produce, purchase, reuse, and recycle clothing.

FAQ

Clothing Drive:

Can we know more about the delivery and pickup of the collection boxes?
Boxes will be delivered to your location(s) by the last week of April 2027 and picked up by the first week of June 2027. Our team will email you the exact dates of delivery by late March 2027 and pickup details will be shared by late May 2027.

What will Redress provide for the clothing drive?

- The delivery and pickup of the clothing collection boxes, which are designed to indicate what clothing items are accepted and where the collected clothing will go
- An update on the quantity your organisation has collected (shared in late June)
- A printable poster to help you promote the clothing drive
- A printable factsheet to provide knowledge about the environmental impact of the our clothes

Where will the clothes go?
Items collected will be sorted into different categories at the Sort-a-thon event. After they are carefully checked, they'll be redistributed: 50%-60% will be given to local charities, 20-30% will be downcycled, 10%-15% will be resold at our pop-up/shops. Only damaged non-textile items (broken shoes, plastic bags, etc) will go to landfill, which represents less than 4%.

What about clothes that cannot be reused?
Clothes that have reached the end of their 'wearable' life (e.g. used personal items like underwear, socks, sleepwear, and swimwear, or really worn out/stained/damaged items), or clothes that our charity partners don't want (e.g. company/school uniforms), are difficult for us to deal with. Globally, including in Hong Kong, there is a lack of viable recycling technologies to deal with these 'bottom layer' clothes at scale. At the moment, Redress is working with a partner in Hong Kong to downcycle these items, by shredding the materials and using them to produce boxing bags (to be sent to Thailand boxing schools). Metal pieces (zipper, buttons) are removed at the shredding process to be recycled separately. Each boxing bag requires approximately 40–50 kg of shredded materials.

Sort-a-thon:

I would like to volunteer at the Sort-a-thon as an individual. How can I sign-up?
Individual volunteer sign-ups will open in May 2027, please stay tuned! Individual volunteers are so important to help us run the event smoothly, please note that their role will be to help with the logistics and running of the event, whereas the corporate volunteers will take care of the clothing sorting.

Can we have more than 12 per team for Sort-a-thon?
Only 12 people per team can be allocated due to space limitation.

Can I bring my children to Sort-a-thon?
A dedicated parent–children slot may be arranged during Sort-a-thon 2027, giving the next generation a chance to experience the impact firsthand. If your organisation is interested in forming a team of up to 6 parents and 6 children, please leave a comment upon sign-up, we will do our best to arrange it.

Where do the participation fees go?
The participation fees cover the operational costs of Get Redressed Month, and help provide primary and secondary schools with free participation in the clothing drive.

Which charities do you work with?
The majority of wearable items are redistributed to our network of 20+ local charity partners for reuse by their beneficiaries, including Crossroads, Caritas, YWCA, ImpactHK, Christian Action, and many more.
